(b) (6) I can't believe you would try to go over Andrew's head like this!

Not sure if we own the USPS building but Andrew can help. CC'ing him here.

Miss you!

Hi Andrew,

Could you check on the status of a US Post Office, the North Torrance Station, at 18080 Crenshaw Blvd, Torrance, CA 90504? The City of Torrance just asked me about it because there is a "For Lease" sign up at the building. Thanks.

Dear EPSCoR/IDeA Coalition Annual Meeting Participant,

We are proposing a few changes to the agenda for the EPSCoR/IDeA Coalition's 2018 annual conference which will take place in Washington, DC on February 28, 2018 at the new Intercontinental Hotel at the Wharf. We will hold our opening session on Wednesday morning and then will depart to Capitol Hill for a luncheon. There will be some smaller meetings in the afternoon for the government affairs working group and a few select Coalition and Foundation Board Task Forces. Therefore, you can plan on scheduling your Hill meetings for Wednesday afternoon and/or Thursday, March 1st.

EPSCoR/IDeA Coalition and Foundation Board members will meet on February 27 from 3:00-6:00 p.m. at the Intercontinental. The meeting will be followed by a dinner for Board members.

We are in the process of finalizing our room block with the Intercontinental and would appreciate some input from each of you on whether you will need a room at the hotel the night of Wednesday, February 28th and Thursday, March 1st. Please let us know this information by COB on Thursday, August 10.

We sincerely appreciate your quick response. We look forward to seeing you in February. A formal agenda will be sent to you in the coming weeks.

GSA does not have a lease at that address, likely belongs to USPS.
